

TERMS AND CONDITIONS RAY OF LIGHT FOUNDATIONAL YOGA TEACHER TRAINING PROGRAM

Enrolment

Please fill in the online application form. You will be notified within 5 days of the results of your application, this may also involve a telephone session with Rachel to discuss your application. If you do not hear within the 5 days please email info@rayoflightyoga.com sometimes our emails seem to end up in the junk!

Payment

A $500 non-refundable deposit is required to reserve your space. Payment is to be negotiated on enrolment. Payment plans are binding contractual agreements between the student and Rachel.

What's expected?

The Ray of Light Yoga Teacher Training course is highly experiential, therefore attendance is mandatory and classes can only be missed in exceptional circumstances (see below for further information). Student participation and competency will be regularly assessed throughout the training with enrichment tasks between weekends, practical examinations, discussions and teaching practice. If a student is deemed not competent help can be provided with further study, practice and reassessment. Additional charges may apply if this goes on outside of the course time period.

Students must demonstrate & complete:

- A commitment to self practice
- A reflective approach to learning and teaching
- 100% of course work must be completed
- Engagement in class work and discussion
- Contact with study buddy and home study between weekends

- Practical examination completed with reflection must be completed
- All financial obligations must be completed
- That you are a suitable member of the profession, through appropriate behaviour, character and demeanor
- You will have the ability to provide safe, caring and professional service to others

What if I can't attend a session?

We can accommodate up to 20 hours of missed classes for the entire training DEPENDING on which days you miss sessions may need to be made up with private lessons with the appropriate teacher at a cost of $110 per hour. You may split the cost with anyone else who has also missed the same session.

Please discuss absences with Rachel to ensure that no course work is missed. This is particularly important for those requiring certification.

What qualification will I gain?

On successfully completing the Foundational Level Teacher Training, you will be issued a Certificate of Yoga Teacher Training from Ray of Light Yoga. This is accredited by Yoga Alliance, the US based International Yoga Association at the 200-hour level. This means you will be able to get insurance and can start teaching. The Australian peak body Yoga Australia requires a minimum of 350 hours. You can comply by enrolling in the foundations training with some additional mentoring and level 2 training programs at Ray of light.

What ongoing support is available after completing the course?

After completing the course you will be qualified to teach, however, additional training, mentoring/apprenticeship with Ray of Light Yoga is highly recommended becoming a Yoga teacher takes commitment and ongoing learning and practice. Continuing education is really valuable for additional learning, support and inspiration, and to keep you in contact with your teachers and peers.

It is a requirement of continuing membership of many Yoga Associations that you continue professional development. We offer advanced teacher training courses, teacher mentoring to you support after your initial training. All of these can count toward your continued learning and some towards your next level of Teacher Training if you are registered with Yoga Alliance/ Yoga Australia.

What if I change my mind or am unable to complete the course?

Unfortunately there will be no refund or exchange to another course or event.

Extenuating circumstances will be discussed and managed on an individual basis please discuss any issues with Rachel. This course is not for the faint hearted, so please consider your time availability and commit fully to the course once your decision is made.
